2. Admission Types and Qualifications

- International applicants can apply through International or Expat Admission, and national applicants can apply through General/Special Admissions (see separate admissions instruction).
 - Common Qualifications:
 - Confessing and mature believers who are baptized and have assurance of salvation.
 - Bachelor's degree holders from an accredited university or equivalent as recognized by law.
For ThM, MDiv degree holders from an accredited university with a bachelor's degree, or equivalent as recognized by law.
 - International Admission applicants must meet the above common qualifications and belong in one of the followings:
 - International applicant whose both parents have non-Korean citizenships
 - International/overseas Korean applicant with permanent residency status, who has been educated in a foreign country (elementary school to university for 16 years)
 - North Korean refugee who has a university degree recognized by the Minister of Unification
 - Expat Admission applicants must meet the above common qualifications, have valid visa (expiration at least 6 months later), and belong in one of the followings:
 - International applicant whose both parents have non-Korean citizenships
 - International applicant who was educated in a foreign country (elementary school to university for 16 years)
- ※ The Expat program is designed for expatriate professionals in Korea who wanted a theological education. For Expat students, part-time study is possible, and all courses are charged on a credit basis. An up-front entrance fee is replaced with a lesser, semester-based administrative fee that enables students to take 1 or 2 courses more affordably.
- ※ Dual citizenship (Korean citizenship and another) holders must apply for General/Special Admissions.
